

ALEX WARREN

Oklahoma County Commissioner District 3

Alex Warren, a self-made businessman who's built everything from barbershops to buildings, is stepping up to serve the people of Oklahoma County. Warren's hands-on experience stretches from small-town entrepreneurship to managing billion-dollar operations for a Fortune 500 company — giving him a unique perspective on how to balance budgets, build opportunity, and get results that actually matter.

A lifelong Oklahoman grounded in faith, family, and hard work, Alex has spent his career creating jobs, helping families find affordable housing, and teaching others how to start from scratch and succeed. His campaign for County Commissioner is focused on restoring integrity in the office, cutting waste, fixing roads, protecting taxpayers, and making county government work for the people, efficient and with improved service.

Alex Warren Will Bring Back Leadership You Can Trust

Alex Warren has done it all over 40 years of professional management experience — from running small businesses to helping manage a $1 billion budget for a Fortune 500 company. He's built barbershops, homes, buildings, and helped improve roads across Oklahoma County. Now, Alex is ready to bring that same hands-on experience and fiscal discipline to county government — to fix roads right, restore trust, and make government work more efficiently.

Lead with Integrity and Accountability

Alex believes leadership means earning trust every day through honesty, transparency, and respect for the people you serve.

Restore Public Confidence

End the culture of favoritism and replace it with professionalism, fairness, and open communication with citizens.

Fix Roads and Bridges – and Do It Right

Put an end to waste, delays, & excuses by applying 40+ years of proven business discipline to every project. Roads and bridges should be built to last.

Build a Culture of Respect and Responsibility

Alex will ensure county employees and residents are treated with dignity, creating a government that reflects Oklahoma values, not political games.

Put Taxpayers First

With experience helping manage a $1 billion-plus operating budget for a Fortune 500 company, Alex knows how to make every dollar count and how to spot waste before it starts.

Champion Smart Growth and Public Safety

Invest wisely in infrastructure, affordable housing, and first responders so every community across Oklahoma County can thrive.

Serve with Faith and Purpose

Guided by his Christian conservative values, Alex Warren will uphold the moral standards that strengthen families, protect taxpayers, and restore trust in local government.
